FRANCIACORTA (METHOD CHAMPENOISE)

Cuvee Brut DOCG Franciacorta – Bellavista

Of all the Bellavista wines, Brut Cuvee represents the characteristic qualities Of Franciacorta. Its balance derives from the blending of at least thirty Selections of the pinot nero, chardonnay and pinot bianco, the addition of Some older wines with their distinctive perfumes and flavours confers Consistency to the taste plus roundness and finesse. The mousse is white, lively and persistent, the bubbles small and long lasting. The colour is light yellow with hint of green. The nose is full, inviting, rich in ripe Fruits, and vanilla which is reflected in the taste, and echoes in the after taste. From Lombardia. Dry. 12%

Gran Cuvee Brut Rose' Franciacorta DOCG 2003 – Bellavista

This vintage Gran Cuvée owes its delicate, consistent colour to the Maceration technique on the grape skins. It is produced in Limited quantities from the union of at least ten selections of the same vintage, Some of which are fermented in wood. It has a lovely, white mousse, with fine Grained, slow releasing long lasting bubbles, and classic “onion skin” rose colour. The intense fruit carries fragrances of wild strawberries, orange rind, golden Delicious apples and roses. Dry, fresh and graceful, with a background of Blackcurrant. With a silky structure it is a wine of class. From Lombardia. Dry.12%
